Fort Monmouth Closing - September 2011

1126 Acres - What is the Plan?

What Does That Mean For Us?

Hear It From "The Authority"

The Women's Council of REALTORS® Brings You
The Fort Monmouth Economic Revitalization Authority

What will happen to the base after the September 2011 closing?

Who are the decision makers in the redevelopment plan?

What is the process for interested buyers, sellers, businesses, real estate agents?

Is there a list of buildings and assets to review?

How to builders, surveyors, title companies, land use attorneys, and real estate licensees keep up to date on the plans and changes for the redevelopment of Fort Monmouth?

What is the process for submitting proposals?

The Fort Monmouth Economic Revitalization Authority (FMERA) was created to provide investment, continuity and economic growth to the communities impacted by the federal government's decision to close Fort Monmouth. FMERA will replace the Fort Monmouth Economic Revitalization Planning Authority and advance that entity's Reuse and Redevelopment Plan for economic development, growth and planning, with a focus on technology-based industries, for the 1,126 acres of real estate at Fort Monmouth following the base closure in September 2011.
